Foreign investment in liquor industry

1301. SHRI S. MUTHU MANI: Will the Minister of INDUSTRY be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is true that Government permits foreign investment in India (Liquor industry) only in non-molasses based potable alcohol sector;

(b) whether any multinational company has been allowed to use molasses by deleting the condition on use of only non-molasses alcohol in the production of alcoholic beverages without the consent of the administrative Ministry as has been reported in the press; and

(c) if so, what are the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF INDUSTRY (SHRI MURASOLI MARAN): (a) to (c) The Policy of the Government is not to allow fresh capacity creation in potable alcohol sector in Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) proposals. Therefore, Government have been allowing foreign investment in this sector for manufacture of potable alcohol including Indian Made Foreign Liquor (IMFL), within the existing licenced capacity of the Indian joint venture partner so that no fresh capacity is created. So far, approvals given in this sector are in line with Government Policy and as per conditions imposed. All approvals are subject inter-alia to the condition that no fresh capacity for manufacture of potable liquor shall be allowed and that the proposed joint venture shall use the existing licenced capacity of the Indian partner who must hold an existing valid licence. The use of raw materials i.e., molasses or non-molasses would depend upon the condition and terms of the existing licence held by the Indian joint venture partner unless otherwise specified by the Government at the time of approval of the foreign collaboration.

While granting approvals for foreign investment in this sector, the recommendations of Ministry of Food Processing Industries and Department of Chemicals and Petrochemicals are duly taken into account by the Foreign Investment Promotion Board (FIPB).
